Worship Songs

Our worship is more heartfelt when we are more confident in the words and tunes of the songs we sing.

We invite you to be listening:

Na Daroonga (Psalm 91 in Hindi)

*Our Prayer
to God*

"Listen to my prayer, O God, do not ignore my plea."

Psalm 55:1

On August 31, John Bonnell preached from Psalm 86 about using a song of lament to help us cry out to God and to find hope in Him. It was such a valuable call to a historic practice among God's people.

This Sunday, we will use Psalm 55 as a guide for our lament. We live in a world of many troubles, both individual and shared, including local and national and global. God invites us to come to Him and find healing and hope. I will preach briefly from Matthew 17:22-23 where the disciples were distressed to realize the reality of the suffering and even betrayal of Jesus the Messiah.

I invite you to come ready to cry out to God, and to find hope in Him. The sermon will be earlier in the service, then we will have a time of silent prayer and then also prayers led by a few individuals as we seek God's presence and work in our brokenness.

I hope you can join this Sunday's worship service, whether in person or online at tiny.cc/cmclive

Fellowship House Service Projects

We are so thankful for the use of the "Fellowship House" at 1620 River Terrace, East Lansing AND we need some help to take care of it. Over the coming weeks, we are looking for volunteers to do some raking (when more leaves are down) and other light maintenance work. Maybe you and a friend or family members or your small group could sign up for a task and a time. See a list of tasks and sign up on this Google sheet: <http://tiny.cc/cmchelps>. Questions?
