2026 Bible Reading Guide

*I delight in your decrees;
I will not neglect your word.*

*If your law had not been my delight,
I would have perished in my affliction.*

Oh, that my ways were steadfast in obeying your decrees!

Psalms 119:16, 92, 5 (NIV)

QUOTATIONS ABOUT BIBLE READING...

In all sciences, the ablest professors are they who have thoroughly mastered the texts. A man, to be a good jurisconsult, should have every text of the law at his fingers' ends; but in our time, the attention is applied rather to glosses and commentaries. When I was young, I read the Bible over and over and over again, and was so perfectly acquainted with it that I could, in an instant, have pointed to any verse that might have been mentioned. I then read the commentators, but I soon threw them aside, for I found therein many things my conscience could not approve, as being contrary to the sacred text. 'Tis always better to see with one's own eyes than with those of other people.

-Martin Luther

Charles Spurgeon, the great English preacher of the last century, described preaching the Bible as "letting a lion loose."

And he was right.

God's Word is powerful. And when we understand its message we do let loose a force as powerful as a lion.

But how can we let loose this lion-like power of God's Word in our own lives?

The most obvious first step is simply to read God's Word. For all our talk about the Bible, the Precious Book of Life will remain a dead, powerless volume until we pick it up and begin to read....

Read God's Word. Read all of it. Pay attention to it; pray through it; receive it with faith and love; lay it up in your hearts; practice it in your lives. If you do these things, heavenly forces more powerful than any pack of lions will be let loose where you live. People will be blessed, situations will be changed, and God will be glorified.

-Douglas Kelly

Those believers will stand firmest who have no dependence upon self or upon creatures, but upon Jehovah our Righteousness. We must be driven more to our Bibles, and to the mercy seat, if we are to stand in the evil day. Then we shall be able to say, like David, "The proud have had me greatly in derision: yet have I not declined from thy law." (Psalm 119:51) "Princes have persecuted me without a cause: but my heart standeth in awe of thy word." (Psalm 119:161)

It has long been in my mind to prepare a scheme of Scripture reading, in which as many as were made willing by God might agree, so that the whole Bible might be read once by you in the year, and all might be feeding in the same portion of the green pasture at the same time.

-Robert McChesney

INTRODUCTION...

Oh, how great is God's love for us! David asked God to reveal the wonder of this great love and was assured that God is rich in love. Paul prayed that the Ephesians would grasp "how wide and long and high and deep is the love of Christ," and he also wrote that God showed His love for us when Christ died for us. As we likewise know more of Christ's love, we are strengthened to trust Him more and to live for Him.

One way to grow in knowing Christ and His love is to regularly read His Word. The following guide has been designed to help us be more regular and comprehensive in our Bible reading so that we can say like David, "I will not neglect Your Word." Here are three suggested plans:

1. The first column is a plan to read through the New Testament in a year by reading one chapter each week day and through Psalms and Proverbs by reading one chapter of Proverbs each Saturday and about five Psalms each Sunday. It is suggested that it is better to become very familiar with the New Testament before going on to the other plans.
2. The second column is a plan to read through the Bible in a year by reading the Old Testament and New Testament books alternately.
3. The third column is a plan to read through the Old Testament once and the New Testament, Psalms, and Proverbs twice by reading in each part daily. This can be divided into morning and evening readings. You might want to vary the pace of your reading in the second and third plans so you read the Old Testament at a faster pace and then can spend more time in your New Testament reading.

Many have found these plans helpful and enjoyable in their walk with Christ. We are sobered, however, to remember that reading is not enough, for as 1 John warns us, if we claim to live in Jesus, we must walk as He walked.

This new year may we be assured of His love, diligent in reading His Word, and faithful in walking in the light as Christ is in the light.

APRIL 2026

I also pray that you will understand the incredible greatness of God's power for us who believe him.

This is the same mighty power that raised Christ from the dead and seated him in the place of honor at God's right hand in the heavenly realms.

JUNE 2026

And you did not receive the "spirit of religious duty, leading you back into the fear of never being good enough. But you have received the "Spirit of full acceptance," enfolding you into the family of God. And you will never feel orphaned, for as he rises up within us, our spirits join him in saying the words of tender affection, "Beloved Father!"
